

A Report on International Awareness Program

Titled “From India to the World: Navigating international work cultures”

Organized by

The Department of Business Administration and

Department of Commerce in association with IQAC and IIC

Date: 14th November, 2024

Time: 11.30 AM

Venue: Academic Building Seminar Hall

The Chief guests of honour were Mr. Kushal Agarwala, Tax Manager, Big 4, London and Ms. Hannah Dodd, Freelancer and HR intern, London.

The program commenced with felicitation ceremony; Ms. Hannah Dodd was felicitated by Father Principal & Mr. Kushal Agarwala was felicitated by Barsha Ghosh, Assistant Professor, Dept. of Commerce.

Both the speakers discussed about their journey towards achievement of their goals after completing their studies and how they became successful. The students engaged with them by asking insightful questions, to which the speakers provided engaging responses. They talked about the opportunities and risks they faced when they changed their jobs, especially when they moved from one country to another. Additionally, they have discussed how managerial practices vary among nations and the how the type of work place as well as workload differ from one country to another.

Overall, it was an engaging and productive seminar. It was also highly inspiring and motivating for students who wish to work and pursue career abroad in future.

Key takeaways:

- Enhancement of career opportunities and prospects for becoming successful in life
- Facing global challenges help to promote personal growth and self-awareness and broadens one's world view
- Building up competence through increasing effort, dedication and practice
- Being open to new experiences, challenges, and perspectives and being adaptable to new environment.

The program was attended by 77 students and 12 faculty members, comprising of students from Dept. of Commerce, Dept. of Business Administration, and Dept. of Computer Application. This diverse participation underscores the interdisciplinary nature fostered by The Department Business Administration & Department of Commerce within the academic domain.
