

REPORT
ACADEMIC EXTENSION LECTURE ON CONTEXTUALISING SOCIOLOGY.
2021-2022

The Department of Sociology on 9th October 2021 organized an online lecture on “Contextualising Sociology” from 4 pm to 5:00 pm. Sritama Chaudhuri, Assistant Professor of Sociology, Asutosh College, Kolkata was the esteemed guest. All Sociology honours students of 1st, 2nd, and 3rd Years with their professors attended the lecture through Google Meet. Also, the other interested candidates or past students joined through Google Meet.

Sociology as a discipline has always been highly interrogated for its very purpose. Being one of the newest social sciences, the subject has a lot of scope to be understood and misunderstood. To clear all these ideas and to properly channelize the potentialities of this discipline, Prof. Sritama gave lucid real-life examples and also aptly provided the various concepts and technical know how's of the subject. The students were truly benefitted and there were numerous question that came up in course of the webinar, to which the speaker came up with highly satisfying answers.
