The Department of Geography at St. Xavier's College, Burdwan, organized a national webinar on "Changing Geographies: Living with the Pandemic" on 8th June 2020. The event featured two distinguished speakers: Dr. Kiran Bhairannavar from the Delhi School of Economics and Dr. Sanjukta Sattar from the University of Mumbai. The webinar, attended by 107 participants, began with an introductory speech followed by insightful presentations on the impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic.

Dr. Sanjukta Sattar's presentation focused on the "Impact of COVID-19 on the Tourism Industry," providing an in-depth analysis of challenges and new initiatives post-pandemic. Her engaging discussion emphasized the need for innovative approaches to revive tourism. Dr. Kiran Bhairannavar's talk, titled "Lockdown Geographies: Unpacking Everyday Spaces in Time of Corona," explored the dynamics of home and daily life during the lockdown. Despite technical limitations, the webinar fostered thought-provoking discussions and provided valuable insights into the geographical implications of the pandemic. The session concluded with a vote of thanks, marking a significant academic engagement for the department.
