Introduction

The Rover and Ranger Group of St. Xavier's College, Burdwan, proudly participated in a vibrant and intellectually stimulating training camp organized by the Apanjan Scouts & Guides Group, Katwa, in association with the Purba Bardhaman District Association for Cub, Bulbul, Scouts, Guides, Rover and Rangers. This three-day residential camp was a convergence of young minds, aimed at nurturing leadership, social responsibility, and cultural integrity among Scouts and Guides.

2. Delegation from St. Xavier's College

The college was represented by a committed contingent of ten participants, under the able mentorship of Ranger Leader Mrs. Prottusa Dutta and Rover Leader Mr. Supratik Goswami. The names of the participating members are as follows:

1. Soumyadip Garai
2. Anubhab Sinha
3. Adarsh Barnwal
4. Sourav Batabyal
5. Rahul Sk.
6. Pretty Agnes Naskar
7. Hena Khatun
8. Madhumita Mondal
9. Shrayasree Naskar
10. Biswarup Halder

Their participation reflected a collective zeal to uphold the values of the Bharat Scouts & Guides movement and further their personal and community development.

Inauguration and Dignitaries

The camp was formally inaugurated with the hoisting of the Bharat Scouts & Guides flag followed by the BSG prayer, instilling a sense of discipline, reverence, and patriotism. The inaugural session was graced by esteemed dignitaries:

- Dr. Amal Sengupta, District Chief Commissioner
- Mr. J.N. Chowdhury, District Commissioner
- Mr. Sukanta Das, Secretary, Purba Bardhaman District Association

Their inspiring words underscored the transformative potential of the Scout movement and emphasized the values of service, unity, and leadership.

Key Activities Conducted

The camp was structured around a wide array of intellectually engaging and socially purposeful activities designed to holistically develop the participating youth. These included:

Skill-Building Activities

- First Aid Training: Participants acquired essential life-saving techniques and learned to respond effectively during emergencies.
- Mapping Exercises: Sessions on map-reading and orientation fostered spatial awareness and navigational competence.
- Vocational Crafts: Practical skills such as carpentry, weaving, and basic metalwork were taught to encourage self-reliance and manual dexterity.

Social and Cultural Engagement

- 4 km Awareness Rally: Conducted to promote civic awareness and unity among the local populace.
- National Integration Camp Activities: Interactions were held to bridge cultural diversities and promote national solidarity.
- Cultural Exchange Programs: Participants showcased and appreciated each other's regional traditions, music, and heritage.
- Community Service: Hands-on involvement in activities such as park cleaning and organizing social awareness drives reflected the spirit of civic engagement.
- Sports and Physical Training: Engaging in team sports and games encouraged physical fitness and mutual cooperation.

Objectives and Educational Value

The camp was rooted in the fundamental aims of the Bharat Scouts & Guides, specifically:

- Developing Well-Rounded Individuals: Through activities that nurture emotional, intellectual, and physical faculties.
- Leadership Development: Encouraging participants to take initiative, make decisions, and lead groups in diverse situations.
- Promoting Civic Values: Embedding a deep sense of responsibility and commitment to societal well-being.
- Environmental Stewardship: Cultivating love and respect for nature through outdoor and sustainability-focused activities.
- Teamwork and Collaboration: Instilling the importance of collective effort and harmonious cooperation.
