

Name: ARIJIT SAHA

Designation: Assistant Professor, Department of English

Qualifications: M.A., UGC-NET, Ph.D.(pursuing)

Email ID: arijitsaha.dgp@gmail.com

Educational Qualification

- Pursuing PhD in English (Visva-Bharati University)
- MA in English (Visva-Bharati University)
- BA with English Honours ( Durgapur Government College,The University of Burdwan)

Areas of specialization and Research

- Gender and feminism
- Popular Culture
- Literary theory

Teaching Experiences

- Taught undergraduate and postgraduate courses in Visva- Bharati University pertaining to English Honours, Communicative English, and Ability Enhancement Course, during the period of January 2014 to December 2017.
- Engaged as Assistant Professor in private colleges, from January 2018 to January 2022.
- Engaged as Assistant Professor in St. Xavier's College, Burdwan from August 2022.

Academic Achievements

- Qualified UGC NET in English.
- Passed RET (Research Eligibility Test) conducted by Visva-Bharati University strictly in accordance with the UGC norms.
- Ranked First in MA in English from Visva-Bharati University.

Publications

- “Re-imagining the Shakespearean Female Figure in Bollywood: Maqbool, Omkara and Haider.” Yearly Shakespeare (Listed in Scopus). Vol-xiv. Ed. Dr Goutam Ghosal. 2016. Print. (ISSN- 0976-9536).
- “Representing Resistance in Patriarchy: The Feminist Cops in Unbelievable”, published in Exposure: The Journal of Social Sciences and Humanities. Vol. VIII. No 1.
- “The Girl with the Dragon Tattoo: The Female Avenger and Women's Empowerment”. Phalanx (Refereed journal) April 2018.Web. (ISSN-2320-7698)