

REPORT
ACADEMIC EXTENSION LECTURE ON ‘RELIGION IN CONTEMPORARY SOCIETY’:
2019-2020

The Department of Sociology, St. Xavier’s College, Burdwan organized an academic extension lecture on ‘Religion in Contemporary Society’ on 18th January 2020 at 11 am on Seminar Hall, Academic Building, St. Xavier’s College, Burdwan. Prof. Titasha Sinha, Assistant Professor, Department of Sociology, Singur General Degree College, Hoogly & Dr. Roddur De, Assistant Professor, Department of Sociology, Chandernagore Government College, Chandernagore were the esteemed guests.

Religion has always played an enduring role in shaping the fabric of human societies throughout history. Its influence extends across every dimension of societies-cultural, ethical, and political and moulds the collective consciousness of communities and individuals. The seminar aimed to throw light on the significance and relevance of religion in the contemporary society and in everyday life.

Department of Sociology

The Department will be discussing "Religion", today,
within an academic framework.

Come join if you want to hear
and be heard.

Chief Speaker: Dr. Titasha Sinha

