

Lecture- “URBAN GEOGRAPHY: THEORIES AND PRACTICES”

Speaker: Dr. Gopa Samanta, Prof, Department of Geography, The University of Burdwan

DATE: 23rd FEBRUARY, 2019

TIME: 12.00 P.M

VENUE: SEMINAR ROOM, GROUND FLOOR

Brief note: This special lecture was the 2nd extension lecture for the Department which was conducted on 23rd February, 2019. It participants were the undergraduate students of all three years, the ex-students of the college who are undergoing postgraduate degree and also form the other department. In the whole session, Prof. Samanta delivered her inspiring speech on the fundamental theories and practices of urban geography in geography in order to inculcate knowledge especially for the undergraduate students. She also highlights on the recent trend of urbanization pattern in India and also in West Bengal. It was a followed by a power point presentation and also the tradition methods for making understand the derivation of the topic.

Photographs of the Session-

Fig1: The resource person Dr. Gopa Samanta, Prof Department of Geography, University of Burdwan.

Fig2: Departmental Students with the resource person.

Flyer:

THE DEPARTMENT OF GEOGRAPHY
ST. XAVIER'S COLLEGE, BURDWAN

Cordially Welcomes you to a Special Lecture on

URBAN GEOGRAPHY: THEORIES AND PRACTICES

Speaker: Dr. Gopa Samanta
Professor,
Department of Geography,
The University of Burdwan

Date: 23rd February, 2019
(Saturday), 12:00 pm

Venue: Seminar hall,
Ground floor, College Building